

TARPON SPRINGS, FL

SEPTEMBER 2018

FEMA's Risk Map program helps strengthen communities to take actions to reduce their hazard risk, enhances local planning, improves outreach through risk communications, and increases local resilience to natural hazards. Below is an overview of key information about the City of Tarpon Springs.

National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) policies in effect:

3,444

Total coverage in Tarpon Springs through NFIP policies:

$833,392,100

$18,466,098

Total amount of federal grants supporting mitigation awarded to Pinellas County since 1995.

Pinellas County Hazard Mitigation Plan Expires on:

May 5, 2020

CRS Class: 7

Community Rating System (CRS) provides flood insurance premium discounts for community efforts beyond the minimum floodplain management requirements.

The Class 6 rating can reduce flood insurance premiums up to 15%.

25,331

Population based on 2017 Census estimate

Presidential Disaster Declarations in Pinellas County (flood/severe storm related).

Total number of flood insurance claims in Tarpon Springs

593

Pinellas County Preliminary FIRM

Preliminary FIRM generally shows reductions in Base Flood Elevations (BFE) along the Gulf Coast of Pinellas County, with increases in BFE along the Tampa Bay Coast. These maps are not final and subject to changes.

Preliminary Flood Insurance Rate Map (FIRM) for coastal Pinellas County released on:

June 29, 2018

Repetitive Loss Properties:

210

KEEPING PINELLAS COUNTY SAFE: Your Risk MAP Timeline

YOU ARE HERE

Discovery Meeting

Flood Study Review

CCO and Public Meetings

Resilience Meeting

Effective Maps